WHERE ARE WE?

In the pickle pot, in a dilemma, in a mess, in confusion and muddling through the first skirmish of the "Mother of all Wars"! You are in a deflationary depression regardless of what your Earth brother broker will tell you. No? Oh I see, your "inflationary" EXPERTS say it has to be inflationary? Why? Undoubtedly the prices of some things will continue to climb for a while--but you must look to the banking/Federal Reserve system for your clues.

The Fed must initially make reserves available to the banking system. The Fed does this mostly by buying government paper assets--treasury bills, notes, and bonds from the banking system and crediting their accounts accordingly. Then, in your fractional reserve system, the banks can make new loans and create new deposits for their customers up to several times their new reserves. It is, in reality, a legalized confidence game (scam). As long as the banks are willing to make loans, the Fed can expand deposits and currency and, hence, debt, and also the purchasing (spending) rate. The Fed has nightmares, however; what if the banks run out of "credit-worthy" borrowers who refuse to use the reserves that the Fed makes available to them to make new loans?

The Fed is locked into this continuing credit expansion. It cannot stop. If ever bank lending slows, then the game is over and a scramble for liquidity begins. Banks and thrifts and other creditors will rush to salvage what they can from their nonperforming loan portfolios. Remember, if debts are not repaid by the borrowers, the creditors will rush to salvage what they can from their nonperforming loan portfolios.

This is debunked by the "inflationists" by saying that the Fed can always create more and more and more money--and I have told you that they can do this, as well as telling you that there is ONLY credit--no MONEY. So far, then, the argument holds up--BUT--they somehow fail to understand the essential second step in the credit expansion process, namely that the banks must use the reserves created by the Fed to make new loans. If they don't, then the Fed is merely pushing on a string--a wet one at that--and is helpless to continue the expansion. The Fed found itself in this precise mess in the 1930's. Banks had huge excess reserves but refused to use them to make loans. The banks were scared to death to make new loans. After all, you lost some 40%--some 10,000 of your 25,000 banks! This was between 1930 and the "bank closings" under Roosevelt in 1933. The banks were petrified they were so scared. The economic climate of the 1930's was highly uncertain. You still had some 9 million people out of work by 1939 and your population ratio had a much more pronounced percentage of unemployed--that was about 17-18 percent of the work force. Therefore, it required over a decade to pull you out of the depression and required a war, in addition. World War II saved the "bacon" by allowing banks to have enough confidence to make loans related to war materiel. These, further, were secured by government spending--it is a spiral that eventually gets totally out of control.

DEMISE OF GOLD STANDARD

You must remember, as we discuss this situation of then vs. now, that the BIG difference was the demise of the gold standard. The main constraint on credit expansion in today's circumstance is high interest rates. You are going to see the credit expansion stretched to the outer limits of this interest constraint and, as with a rubberband, it will reach its capacity to stretch and snap.

Don't be misled by the prattling or the little perturbations and ups and downs as things fluctuate. Remember that all existing commercial loans and now over 50% of home mortgages have VARIABLE interest rates. As rates rise, many companies and individuals will simply not be able to meet the increases because their profits and salaries will not keep pace with the rising burden. This, in turn, is referred to as a liquidity squeeze.

Two items should be watched with the microscope and be prepared to move rapidly. One is called Total Fed Credit and the other is Total Reserves.

Total Fed Credit is essentially the Fed's total assets on paper. These are mostly securities purchased by the Fed and are an accurate measure of Fed Credit Expansion. The total now is somewhere around $263 Billion. That is a mammoth number. The Fed is locked into creating even MORE reserves for the banking system.

Are the banks using these reserves to make new loans? Well now, you have to turn and look at the total reserves, which are liabilities of the Fed. Total reserves are mostly deposits at the Fed that banks are required to keep against their outstanding loan levels. If total reserves are rising, then bank loans are expanding. There was a sharp rise in total reserves beginning back in February of 1985, for instance, just at the point where the dollar turned WEAK AND GOLD BEGAN TO RISE. Then in 1987, total reserves leveled off at around $60 Billion and have remained at about that level since. This is evidence, friends, that bank loans are NO LONGER EXPANDING, AND THE CREDIT EXPANSION PROCESS HAS PEAKED.

ARE THE FEDS ALL-POWERFUL?

Pretty nearly--but as with all things--there are flaws and holes. The Fed can control its assets but not its liabilities. It can buy all the government securities it wants, to create reserves for the banks, but it can not control either the demand for currency in circulation or bank loans. People decide on how many reserve bank notes they want to carry around, and banks themselves decide on whether or not to make new loans. So when you hear people say "the government will never permit another deflationary depression", they simply don't recognize the facts nor how important those constraints are on the power of the Fed. In short, without other intervention of some kind from the Powers that Be, the Fed would be powerless to stop a deflationary collapse once it starts the snowball course.

Once a "run on the dollar" begins, people of the world over will scramble to get rid of dollars and return to their own currency. You know that foreigners hold hundreds of billions of dollar assets in the U.S. A drop in the stock, bond, or real estate markets would easily trigger a flight from these assets--AND IS NOW UNDER WAY!!

PULLING OUT

While you have been distracted by contracted manipulations in Desert Shield/Storm, flag-waving and killing, another storm with greater "long-term" consequence rages out of control within your own borders--unspoken of on the controlled media and the hype goes on ad nauseam.

Money funds are pulling out of CD's and dumping bank commercial paper. Foreign investors are letting their U.S. CD's expire. Depositors with multiple accounts of $100,000 fear they will soon be limited to a total of $100,000 in insurance at best so they are beginning to pull their money out.

The mass withdrawals from the Bank of New England, the largest in recent memory, left the authorities so shocked that they decided to do something they had hoped would NEVER BE NEEDED AGAIN--PAY OFF ALL UNINSURED DEPOSITORS IN FULL--you see, they had some "very important" investors. Further, this was supposed to inspire confidence in the banking system--but it has continued its slump anyhow and, like a landslide, it will zip downward.

What you may not realize, however, is that when they say that the recession will be over by mid-year, they may very well mean it--again, to suck you in for they can print enough new money to stall this thing until the Elite are safely into gold--(OUT OF THE NATION). Surprise: the reason the Bush son is set up in Bahrain is to receive and stash gold bought without going through the banking system and keep the dealings out of the U.S. as far as public "eye" is concerned. This is a rigged deal set up and orchestrated with private contracts between George Bush and the "Royal" Sabahs of Kuwait.

Now are you really surprised to learn that the agreements were drawn, orchestrated and the outcome set prior to this little fiasco in the Middle East? Sic, Sic. Even I told you that over and over again. Moreover, look at the oil wells burning--isn't that just a real sight? Don't you just drool in horror at all that black smoke and pollution?

They tell you "5-6 years to get those oil fires out!" That is the biggest lie thus far--they set at least half those fires and, yes, Saddam's group set the rest. However, just as they started them with napalm--they can as quickly extinguish them with one air/fuel explosion at each site--through "smart weapons". You see, it requires oxygen to allow burning. Fuel/air explosives use all the oxygen and when the explosion is over so would be the fire.

SO WHAT DO WE DO?

Well, if you are a personal friend of the Sabah's or George Bush, I would suggest you put your millions into "underground", unreported gold and get it into something of security placement in Bahrain. If you don't know them or don't have enough assets to do such--then you need to be awfully careful. If you horde gold in bullion or extensive stashes in banks it will simply be confiscated--and the foreigners know it. However, "...you scratch my back, George, and I'll set you up, friend"--says Mr. Sabah.

I can only give you information about that which IS and that which is planned--and they plan to get all the assets; that is the plan for world domination, my brothers. There is a big brick wall at the end of every maze tunnel.

Then you say, "I'll just get a lot of cash, then, and bury it!" Good idea, except it will be worthless--that, too, is well-planned.

They may or may not pull $50's and $100's prior to exchange of currency--but it looks more and more like probably NOT. Why? Because the ones they have set up to pretend to trap are now predominantly utilizing $20's and $10's. You can be prepared within the week for Mr. Bush to again turn his attention to the major drug problem and increase in crime and murders--and make a play for the guns. All the while he will have his henchmen arranging for his assets to be turned into gold and moved out of the country--along with all those other Elite Cartel "advisors" and "buddies".

The next few serious moves along those lines will have to be subtle indeed, for Clark Clifford's and the Arab's bank, Bank of Credit and Commerce International, is now found to be the world's major money-laundering facility and is in direct working relationship with Clifford's bank, First American....etc. That will hit the public eye so maneuvers must be very, very subtle here for awhile while banks are being absorbed into other banks and then into the Central Bank--where none of the Elite want their assets to be captured. This is a REAL game of charades where the "little guy" is "had".

Let me give you a hint, if you think you can stash a little gold privately--get circulated coins and pay the premium--not that this is necessarily a great way to go--BUT IT IS THE WAY THE MAJOR FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD MEMBERS ARE DOING IT!! Of course, they have inside pull in the ability to cash them in LATER. The other way they are covering assets is to use gold as collateral and take money which they then put into private projects, etc., hoping the collateral will hold safe. And with "them" using the tool, it will last as long or longer than any other approach.

Depending on how much you have to lose or invest--get adequate corporations set up in Nevada and get diversified and the money, gold and everything OUT of your personal name.

You ones want the magic of perfection so you win, win and make money. Well, this way there is the possibility. Setting firmly atop your stack of money either in paper or notes will surely cost you the assets. You either move with the security of the paths the Elite take or your assets will fall to them for this plan has been laid against this day for eons.

To get your verification just look at the banks and what they are doing (let me spell out a bit of it for you). Let us move on from the Bank of New England and the Harlem Bank where they DID NOT bail it out as with the Bank of New England, and look at another situation or two for relative evaluation.

You know now about bank holidays, etc., as in Rhode Island. The banking collapse in New Hampshire is underway and the large majority of the money-center banks, including Chase, Chemical and even Morgan Guaranty, have less than five percent (5%) in capital per dollar of assets. Another decline of 1 percentage point in this key indicator will cause them to fall below the bare bones capital levels needed to survive a more severe recession--and that is exactly the way it is planned--so that all assets of property and credit eventually end up in the ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT--ONE WORLD CURRENCY/BANKING CARTEL. These major banks are all working together to make sure this happens--it is not an accident, brothers.

But watch the events of the great front page item, the most shocking of all to depositors and regulators alike--the crisis at Citicorp. Although Citicorp is not necessarily the weakest of the New York banks, it is certainly the largest among those which are in grave danger of total disaster. Citicorp is laying off a big bunch of employees and depositors are starting to tremble.

Citibank is Citicorp's main subsidiary and it has significantly more capital, as a percent of assets, than Bank of New England had in its final months: some 4.8% vs. 0.8%. It is NOT enough to survive more than a very slight recession. Citicorp is already buried in spoiled, worthless real estate loans.

Here is where you get your clue as to the intent vs. the "accidentally being caught" picture. Once it became obvious that real estate values were collapsing, you would think Citicorp would have cut back sharply, especially in the high-risk areas. Instead, in 1990, the bank lent over $12 billion to developers for commercial real estate projects--more than six times the amount loaned in 1980--and the highest for the past decade. Rotten apples somewhere in the barrel, perhaps?

The vacancy rates zoomed upward, loan payments to Citicorp became indeed sparse. Property values dropped, sinking below the amount that the holding company, as well as other banks, lent to developers.

However, the pain and agony does not stop there. Citicorp carries a delinquency rate on residential mortgages five times as high as the national average. They have other problems, too, as other customer loan delinquencies are also HUGE. Until recently, Citicorp management--from Wriston to Reed--thought that it could protect the bank from the ravages of big loan defaults by leaning heavily toward the consumer loan business. "Safety in numbers" was their motto, based on the assumption that large numbers of small consumers would not default. They were WRONG. Their loan defaults are mind-blowing and surging. There is no way to stop the thing--there is only knowing that it IS coming and gauging your activities accordingly.

Look at that which you have in just this ONE bank: There is no other bank large enough to buy Citibank; the resources for a government bailout, which were abundantly available in the mid-1980's, are now gone; the economy, rather than enjoying a prolonged boom, is now plunging, and, most important, even if money could be created on the "printing presses", the resulting bulge in the federal deficits would torpedo the bond market, dragging down the government itself right along with it.

Some think the FDIC can pull a trick off--forget it. Others believe the Treasury Department will come on the white horse. That is what happened in December when the Bank of New England went under and it was decided to cover all losses. At that time the Treasury made a $1 BILLION cash injection directly but it was simply a gamble that has proven to have failed. The extra $1 BILLION didn't stop the run. It did not prevent the failure. All it did was increase the size of the federal deficit (for you-the-people). If the Treasury tried to do the same for all large banks in trouble, the surging federal deficit would sink the bond markets.

That leaves only one group to pay for the big losses at the banks--the depositors! No matter how shocking this may be, it is an event that is dead ahead. It is going to be a total financial shock. Brothers, check it out and if your deposits are in a sick bank that cannot be restored to financial health, you will lose: Direct access to your funds before and after a bank holiday; all or most of the interest income over the next several years and, at minimum, as much as 50% of your principal at the very best.

Remember that Rhode Island "bank holiday" the Governor ordered? The order closed the state-chartered banks and credit unions--on January 2. There were over 300,000 accounts involved. BUT, BUT, BUT--with all but 14 institutions open again for business, there are still 300,000 accounts frozen! What happened was that the original estimate was grossly understated--as with all bad news as it hits you the public--slow poison so you don't know right off that you are dead.

Two months later--these depositors are still locked out of their money. Under the current "proposal" from the governor's office, the best they can hope for is non-interest bearing script which will mature in four years.

What if you are one of the ones stuck in such a situation--in any state, for it is coming to ALL--with all this "funny" non-money. All you can do is do without or hope you can find someone who will take it off your hands and a good estimate of exchange value would be a HIGH of 15-20 cents per dollar.

Hold your breath now, for you are going to be able to evaluate how bad it might be for you in similar circumstances if you do not reside in Rhode Island. The private Rhode Island insurance fund had MORE BACKING PER $100 OF INSURED DEPOSITS THAN THE FDIC! And, it is true that the FDIC has the backing of the Treasury--however, the Treasury Department itself will run out of funds because of the declining investors. The Treasury's only option will come to be to abandon the banks and abort any ongoing rescue operations. There is nothing I can do for you, friends, except lay it before you and possibly urge you, again, to find out about both investments using gold as collateral and utilizing corporations properly. I do not have time to go through this again and again--if you have interest in some measure of protection--see if you can get help through America West. I simply have no "human" means to tend each of your investments nor plan of salvation.

WHAT ABOUT THAT MONEY EXCHANGE?

The Fort Worth branch of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing has been printing up a storm. They printed up all the exchange currency for the Soviets and are now working around the clock on "anti-counterfeiting" notes with all this micro-printing, etc. Be prepared, for when they "introduce" this mess of confusion upon you, it can go in a myriad directions but you can be sure you will lose in the deal.

It will be sudden and, just as with the Soviets, there will be LOW--HIGH-LIMITS. There will probably be a 10 for one ratio in exchange. You will have piles of papers to fill out and if you try to exchange too much cash beyond that which you would have from, say, three pay periods--you will forfeit a bunch. If you have big bills you will be held responsible and if "THEY" decide you might have garnered the funds illicitly--they will confiscate it. You will definitely be asked to come up with documentation of WHY you hold cash in large amounts--and yet, if you fail to exchange it, the old will be like the confederate money--WORTHLESS. IT IS ALREADY WORTHLESS FOR A BILL REPRESENTS ONLY A CREDIT NOTE AND NOT MONEY AT ALL.

You think it can't happen? Yugoslavia is having a 10,000 to one currency devaluation effective 1991. France will replace the 20 franc note (about $4 U.S.) with a new coin in 1992. The British Royal Mint has been minting Iraq's circulating coins for several years, including 1990.

And watch out because the IRS has acknowledged that electronically transmitted returns are NOT PROCESSED THROUGH IRS' NORMAL PROCESSING PIPELINE, WHICH INCLUDES GRADING AND SCORING FOR AUDIT POTENTIAL--INSTANTLY. In fact, you only have nine states where you can file electronically with returns that have "balances due" this year. All taxpayers that are due a refund, however, can file electronically, regardless of his/her state. Good luck!

THE ORDER!

I am going to leave this subject as such and turn to "THE ORDER". You just experienced how the "ORDER" creates war and revolution. Now it is important that you listen to me for this is important to your confirmation of fact.

President George Bush is a high-ranking member of the Skull and Bones ("The Order"). The Cheney family (Richard Cheney, Sec. Def.) is also prominent in Skull & Bones and involved, all through and about, is Danny Quayle's family. Cheney's family were active in "The Order" even before the first Bush member, Prescott).

As the attack on Iraq happened so did the shoe drop in the Soviet Union. The Leninists moved one step back and glasnost and perestroika were brought to an instant halt as the troops moved on the Baltic States. Gorbachev claimed "no knowledge", etc., but we all know it was not so.

However, perhaps you missed the fact that of the ONE BILLION dollar credits granted to the Soviet Union by your Congress and the Administration (and then supposedly held up because of the nasty behavior of the Soviet troops)--"9" "0"--90 (NINETY) PERCENT had already been drawn down!--the cargo holds were already fully loaded with your grain before the police move was made.

Now, in the madness and distraction--after the troops began to move out and now that you had all "that help" from the Soviets with Iraq--the Soviets now get an additional credit line which YOU THINK was the original $1 billion amount. Ah, the hand is surely quicker than the eye when the eyes are wrapped in rose-colored paper and the visions--shown as with a movie scenario--exactly that which they want to show you.

You still think this was a little war? Ask the families of the over 100,000 (70,000 of which were but children) slain Iraqis in Baghdad. Ask about the additional 30,000 to 50,000 slain persons on the roads back to Iraq. Ask the families of the over 2 million slain Iraqis who were bombed in their homes all over Iraq--civilians! It was a total bloodbath and as your own pilots giggled and strutted and told you, regarding the roadway massacre--"...it was just like shooting fish in a barrel!"

ARMAGEDDON? WORLD WAR III?

This was not the start of that touted great battle of battles at Armageddon--but the beginning of the set-up for same. The handwriting is there on the wall, brothers--in pure and simple English--you just don't know the definitions of the words.

Where all of your seer-projectioneers are off, is that they still sit twiddling while believing that "Israel" is that new place in Palestine--when God comes for HIS PEOPLE, He is coming for His "i"sraelites. His chosen. The big ANTI-CHRIST has moved in and occupies that little portion called Israel as self-proclaimed by some men in the United Nations in concert with the Khazar Zionists who are so-called, self-styled "Jews"--the term "Jew", remember, only appeared FOR THE FIRST TIME IN RELATIONSHIP TO THESE NON-JUDEANS, IN THE 1700's.

What will happen then? Oh, there will be a period of euphoria and a great "go for peace"--a total pseudopeace. The world will be whoop-dee-doo and willing to submit to a new kind of world federation. BUT THIS WILL BE EXPLODED IN THE FUTURE WHEN THE COMBINED ARAB ARMIES UNITE AGAIN--AND GO FOR ISRAEL'S THROAT. Now, the leopard will show his spots and the Soviets will end up joined with the Arabs and THAT will be the big beginning of that wondrous battle called Armageddon. Check carefully to see who signs treaty agreements guaranteeing Israel's security.

America is referred to as Israel West already, so guess which losing side you are going to be on, America! After that dandy treaty is signed in Arab blood and the Bushes and accomplices get their assets into offshore gold, etc., there should be some 3 and 1/2 years to square around your choices and see if you can get this reversal off its dime--because you are then on the path to that great war. That next "beginning of Armageddon" war will itself (if not stopped) last another approximately 3 and 1/2 years, WITH RUSSIA ALLIED WITH THE ARAB NATIONS AGAINST ISRAEL, THE WESTERN FEDERATION AND GUESS WHO--CHINA!

It will NOT be like your Bible Evangelists tell you, however, for the Zionists are the Anti-Christ and when GOD COMES TO GET HIS CHOSEN ONES--IT WILL NOT BE FOR THE ZIONIST "JEWS" OF A STATE OF ISRAEL--BUT RATHER FOR HIS "i"SRALITES (HIS CHOSEN CHILDREN) AND THEY "AIN'T IN PALESTINE (ISRAEL)".

So what are you going to do? It does NOT have to go according to "their" plan but it will if you do not, as a nation and world, wake up to the probabilities as laid forth. The plan is to have your world in total Rule by the Global One World Government and operable by year 2,000. You don't have much time, do you? YOU CAN CHANGE IT IF YOU WANT TO! It is totally up to you. Ours is to bring Truth--assist in any way we can, those who ask and allow and move into the Godly path of Light. When God comes for

HIS people, I remind you--there will be no evil brought within the places of the God places. At this point in historical evolution--YOU HAVE DELIVERED YOURSELVES INTO THE HANDS OF THE ADVERSARY OF GOD. IT WAS A MOST REGRETTABLE CHOICE INDEED. ON THE OTHER HAND, YOU WERE THE TARGET OF THE MOST CLEVER TRICKSTER OF THE UNIVERSE AND AS VICTIMS OF A CONTROLLED MIND-CONTROL SYSTEM OF VISION AND LIES--YOU KNOW NOT ELSE.

Some say, "Well, I don't want to know because what I don't know can't hurt me...!" WRONG! IT WILL ENSLAVE YOU! FURTHER THE PRISON IS NOT GOING TO BE EITHER GENTLE NOR COMFORTABLE.

Let us close this, please. If there is additional room on this document--please give forth information for obtaining more detailed information regarding the Kuwait/Sabah/Bush, etc., material and any other that we have to assist our brothers. Dear ones, you have reached the time where "perfection" and "cleaning-up" as they say in the economist's circles is probably not going to happen. The best we can hope for is some measure of safety and ability to hold on to some of your assets while it is turned into projects which can grow and give you return--it is a tight-rope walk at best. You are very far behind in countering the game so well planned by your adversaries. I stand ready to help for it is all I can offer--knowledge and Truth; but it IS enough! Salu.

Greetings Thomas, I am Sananda in radiance and service unto God/The Father. Be at peace for though you grow weary, I shall give you strength. Our journey just begins, so let us shore up that in thine preparations the journey may be filled with joy and new discovery and a glad and light heart. To be in service unto God and man during this time is the greatest of all honors and it is one that also is to be experienced in gratitude, humbleness, joy, and please, let us not forget laughter. For laughter heals the heart and mends the wounds and changes the literal vibration within an organism. Together the journey will be made, together the jobs will be completed, and together you shall enter in my realms...the Father's realms...the realms of light wherein all wounds will be healed and the fountain of life shall flow unto you, renewing and revitalizing the essence of light within. Give thanks.

Has it not been said that each shall struggle with self during this period? You are witness to it. Each judges, finds fault, casts forth the stones...none, seemingly, looking back unto self as the source of all confusion, misery and imbalance. When ones begin to look to self rather than the projections onto another, then one small step forward will have been made. Until that time it is like the hamster and the wheel...round and round and round it goes...getting nowhere.

Our ones must hold strong, for you are not given to know the effect of God's Word on Satan's plan. There has been much that has transpired in the Gulf of which you know nothing, and indeed, shall never know. Do you not think the pressures on Saddam were not beyond anything that has ever been placed upon a human...or certainly great, indeed? Was it not the better part of wisdom to go down in defeat than to unleash unbridled death and destruction? What makes you think that perhaps God has not spoken to Saddam? Are you not greatly pleased that there will be troops coming back to the home front where they are truly needed? God works in mysterious ways His wonders to perform...mysterious only in that it remains unknown to you. It is not over, yet. If you are given reprieve where you may have a period of relative peace and stability on the home front...TAKE THE OPPORTUNITY TO REGAIN SOME MEASURE OF INDEPENDENCE UNDER YOUR CONSTITUTION. IF GOD GIVES YOU AN OPEN WINDOW THROUGH WHICH YOU MAY DO FUTHER WORK AND YOU DO IT NOT...IT SHALL BE ONLY YOURSELVES TO BLAME IN THE ENDING.

Give thanks that the destruction is coming to an end. KEEP YOUR EYES UPON THE EU-PHRATES, BELOVED.

What we project to you are probabilities and possibilities. The probabilities are ever in a state of flux. Within God's realms ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE. This includes, beloved, evil ones changing their minds!

Let us close this, Thomas.

I Am Sananda

Peace. I Am Sananda, Thomas, and I come in radiance and service unto God.

Last evening you heard your President speak to America in triumph. Wherein was this victory? There were no standing ovations in Heaven! Do you count the senseless slaughter of untold thousands of Kuwaiti citizens, women, children, elderly on a road...leaving to what they perceived to be safety...do you count this as a wondrous victory? God shakes His head in dismay and disgust at that which has taken place. For God hears the cry of the ones as they are torn to pieces, the agony of being ripped suddenly from their physical forms. The shock of the sudden transition. No, there were no standing ovations in heaven.

And now the ground work shall be carefully and skillfully laid for you to willingly surrender unto this New World Order plan. Why is it, do you suppose, that transportation and crime are next on his dubious agenda? You as citizens must rapidly come into your understanding that it is the Constitution that they wish to remove from their way...and it shall be done to perfection without so much as a shot unless you, YES YOU, awaken and take action to prevent it. Do I advocate REVOLUTION? The revolution, as always, begins with the individual mind. You have a wondrous document that, if followed, would restore balance to your nation, and then the world would truly have an example which to follow. But as portions of this wondrous document are set aside and the dictator Bush does what he pleases under the auspices of Alliance...then you lose a part of yourselves with each action, each bill which is passed. And soon they shall ban guns...gradually at first. But guns shall be first on their agenda, for they may not physically control the masses if they are armed. And then they shall restrict freedom of movement. For if they control your movements they may contain you in isolated regions...or should I, perhaps, more properly refer to them as New States...for this is their plan to redive the United States of America into New region States...nine of them. Will you allow it? If you do not make your feelings known, who shall? Do you think that your individual STATE government is powerless? Nay...the hope lies with your individual state governments if they will merely see it and pass such measures as the 23rd Amendment presented in California to restore your CONSTITUTION...it is a wondrous model for the entire nation. Hear what I am saying for the hourglass is empty and on its side...will you take action before the glass is turned? Or shall the final countdown be one in which you continue to watch your freedoms escape from you...one at a time...until finally it matters not...just one more freedom gone...we'll never miss it. Won't you?
